

Graduate Test Preparation Courses Now Available at Virginia Tech

Considering Grad School or Business School?

In just five short weeks we can help you overcome the anxiety associated with standardized tests.

Which course is right for you?

Graduate Record Exam – GRE

The GRE (General Test) is one criterion in the admissions process for graduate study. It includes three sections: Verbal, Quantitative, and Analytical Writing. If you are a student pursuing a post-graduate degree (ex: M.A., Ph.D.) and want to achieve a high score on the GRE, this is the course for you. Through direct instruction, strategy discussion, and timed practices, you will gain the skills and confidence to perform well on this exam.

Graduate Management Admission Test - GMAT

The GMAT is an exam used by many graduate schools of business and management as one criterion of admission. It includes three sections: Verbal, Quantitative, and Analytical Writing. If you are a student pursuing a post-graduate degree in Business and Management (e.g., an M.B.A.) and want to achieve a high score on the GMAT, this is the appropriate course. Our preparation course provides you with the necessary strategies and techniques for succeeding on the GMAT exam. You will benefit from expert instruction, in-depth class discussion, and timed practice with the questions.

REGISTER TODAY!

To view course descriptions visit: www.der-online.com

To view course schedule and to register visit:

www.conted.vt.edu/testprep

or call (703) 538-8335